

Single Origin - Specialty Coffee

Flor de Apía

Producers: Alex Grajales

Region: Apía, Risaralda, Colombia - Elevation: 5,413 ft.

Coffee Variety: Arabica Castillo - Process: Washed

Roasting Profile: Espresso

Tasting Notes: Honey, sugar cane, chocolate, orange. - Full body & malic acidity.

Farm “Flor de Apía” is located in a privilege region at a high elevation, and surrounded by amazing biodiversity that includes the National Park of Tatamá. 360° views of nature, mountains, trees and clouds providing the perfect shade and environment for some of the best Colombian coffees.

In addition to all of this, Alex dedication and commitment to his farm and the coffee industry adds incredible value to the coffees coming out of Flor de Apía farm. His son, Juan Felipe is a certified Barista and his nephew Juan Alejandro is a master roaster, they along with Elmer are in charge of this integrated coffee production that goes from seed to cup.

www.chapoleracoffee.com